IF YOU ARE ATTENDING TRI STATE – DON'T MISS THIS SEMINAR!!

FROM STRUGGLES TO STRENGTH
HOW TO BUILD RESILIENCE IN CAMPERS, STAFF &
PARENTS

TUESDAY MARCH 10TH @ 9:45 TO 10:45, ROOM 409

WHY? Campers, staff and even parents lack resilience – a critical life skill that camps are in an excellent position to help. Why do campers today lack this ‘Grit?’ Learn the root of the problem from an expert psychotherapist and how you can help build mental ‘muscle.’ Listen to three renowned expert camp directors on cutting edge camp practices and how this problem can be addressed on the ground at your camp.

Have your questions ready – this interactive session is a MUST SEE!!

Presenters:

Gwenn Kudler Gelfand, LCSW. Experienced psychotherapist in private practice dealing with kids in crisis and an integral part of Brown & Brown’s camp crisis response team

Dayna Hardin – President of CampGroup, Director Emeritus of Camps Lake of the Woods and Greenwood Camps. Past President of Midwest Assoc. of Independent Camps, Past VP of ACA National Board, and Co-Founder of SCOPE Midwest.

Ross Coleman. Owner/Director of Coleman Country Day Camps, a SCOPE Board Member, and Past President of the NYS Camp Directors Association.

Aaron Selkow. Director of URJ Camp Harlam, a nonprofit leader, youth advocate, and expert in Mental Emotional Social Health (MESH) at camps.

Michael Labadorf CPCU. Executive Vice President of Brown & Brown, which has been insuring summer camps for well over a century.

ADDED BONUS: APPLE AirPods WILL BE RAFFLED OFF AT THE END OF THE
